

Your Illustrated Portrait

Bio

I'm Alison Garwood-Jones and I'm Toronto-based writer and illustrator with a special fondness for the gig economy.

How it works

- You choose between three portrait styles:
 - A) A tinted ink drawing
 - B) A loose gestural sketch
 - C) You as a superhero!

- You email me your chosen portrait style, along with 2 coloured head-and-shoulders photographs of you to alison.garwoodjones@gmail.com. Please include $175 CDN — half the commission payment — upfront via either a bank e-transfer or certified check. International clients can send money via certified check or Western Union e-transfer.
- Watermarked portraits will be emailed to you for final approval. If accepted, after receiving the other half of the commission ($175 CDN), I will email a high-res jpeg of your portrait, plus mail you the final one-of-a-kind painting for your art collection. If the portrait is rejected, the initial payment serves as a kill fee.
- Price includes all art supplies and shipping costs. In Canada, applicable taxes are extra.
- The artist owns copyright in perpetuity to all images created within this agreement, including the right to use the image(s) for self-promotional purposes.
